Course Timetable

Q2 How will I know when I should attend lessons for my NTU-H3 Taught Module?

- Refer to the detailed timetable at <https://www.ntu.edu.sg/education/talent-outreach/h3-taught/resources-students>.
- Your Module Lecturers will inform you accordingly should there be any changes to the schedule.

Attendance

Q3 Is it compulsory for me to attend all lectures, tutorials, and laboratory lessons?

- Attendance for all lectures, tutorials, and laboratory sessions is compulsory.
- You are expected to be present for all lessons unless you have a Medical Certificate (MC) or an official excuse from your school.
- Attendance will be tracked and your H3 School Coordinator will be informed of any absence.

Q4 What should I do if I fall ill and am not able to attend classes?

- You should see an independent medical practitioner immediately to obtain an MC to certify that you are medically unfit to attend class. The MC must cover the day of your absence.
- Send an email to TalentOutreach@ntu.edu.sg and cc your H3 School Coordinator.
- Include the following in your email:
 - a) Name
 - b) School
 - c) Date(s) of absence
 - d) Reason for your absence
 - e) Clear image of your MC

Q5 What should I do if I am unable to attend classes due to representing my school in a competition?

- You are required to seek approval for any absence from your NTU-H3 Taught Module lessons.
- You will need to inform your H3 School Coordinator. Your H3 School Coordinator will have to submit an official letter of excuse to cover the duration of your absence. This letter must be emailed to NTU 3 working days before the period/date of absence.
- You must receive official approval from NTU through your H3 School Coordinator before absenting yourself from any NTU-H3 Taught Module lessons.

Tests & Examination

Q6 Can I be excused from a test? Will there be a make-up test?

- An absence must be covered by an MC from a doctor or an official letter of excuse from your H3 School Coordinator.
- A make-up test is not guaranteed and will be considered on a case-by-case basis.
- However, if you are absent from a test without a valid reason, a request for a make-up test will not be entertained and zero marks will be awarded.

Q7 Will there be a make-up paper if I miss the NTU-H3 Taught Module Written Examination?

- No, it is compulsory that you sit for the NTU-H3 Taught Module Written Examination.
- You will receive an 'Absent' grade if you do not turn up for the paper, regardless of the reason.
- If you are absent, your school's H3 School Coordinator will be notified for follow-up actions.

Q8 Will my tests and examination scripts be returned to me? Why?

- Your tests and examination scripts will not be returned as the results count towards final your GCE A-Level grade. This is in line with MOE/SEAB's guidelines.

Q9 Are there any examination rules and regulations that I should take note of?

- All students sitting for the NTU-H3 Taught Module Written Examination must read through the NTU-H3 Taught Module Examination Rules and Regulations.

Q10 What happens if the MRT breaks down or if there are other unexpected situations during the day of the NTU-H3 Taught Module Written Examination?

- Refer to the Guidelines on the Handling of Unexpected Situations for more information.

Q11 What happens if I fall seriously ill or if an adverse event occurs on or during the period/day of the NTU-H3 Taught Module Written Examination?

- A candidate whose performance in the NTU-H3 Taught Module Written Examination has been affected by serious illness or adverse events may apply for Special Consideration (SC). Such events may include:
 - Debilitating illness
 - Psychological condition (e.g. severe anxiety or depression);
 - Bereavement in the immediate family (either a grandparent, parent, or sibling);
