

Ashley Chan

INVESTMENT DIRECTOR, GENZERO

Ashley is Investment Director at GenZero, leading the company's investments in carbon ecosystem enablers. Prior to this role, Ashley was part of the Strategy and Development Group where she led the development of GenZero's investment strategy.

Before GenZero, she was Director in Temasek International's Sustainability Group, focussing on developing sustainability strategy in the areas of carbon markets, climate and nature, sustainability investing and sustainable finance. Prior to the Sustainability Group, Ashley was in the Investment Group and made investments of over US$5b across over 10 transactions in retail, restaurants, and personal care subsectors globally. Ashley started her career at the CIMB group.

In terms of external appointments, Ashley sits on the Board of CHOOOSE. Ashley graduated from the London School of Economics and Political Science with a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics and Economics.